MORNING CLASSES - experienced young dancers will explore their love of dance in an environment that supports student potential and invites creativity. In this ballet-based program classes are designed to support and inspire the development of each young dancer's strength, versatility and technique while being guided through a successful transition to beginning pointe work. Morning students will learn the fundamentals of pointe readiness, including where to sew ribbons and elastic, how to properly tie ribbons, how to break in new pointe shoes as well as how to strengthen the body and feet to reduce the risk of injury. Additional arts and dance-related activities will give students the opportunity to enhance creative expression and learn more about their beloved art form.

AFTERNOON CLASSES are designed to support and inspire the development of other dance styles. Students will dive more deeply into diverse styles of dance such as jazz, modern or musical theater. Additional arts and dance-related activities will give students the opportunity to enhance creative expression. The program's curriculum is designed to develop the student's technique and confidence. Working together with fellow dancers is a also an important part of the program.
